Specifics:

Becoming One Flesh (BOF) is a ready-made, six hour premarital education workshop. BOF integrates behavioral science contributions for strengthening marriage with faith-based teachings and practices.

Features:

- BOF is presented to couples as a 6 hour workshop, but can be presented in multiple time formats – 6 hours in one day, 3 hours on two successive weeks, 2 hours on three successive weeks, etc.
- Can be used in conjunction with couple's premarital counseling or as a stand alone
- Can be used in conjunction with other premarital tools (such as PREPARE) or as a stand alone

How is BOF different?

BOF integrates the contributions of Imago Relationship Theory, pioneered by Harville Hendrix Ph.D, with faith-based teachings and practices through an appreciative inquiry process.

Author/Presenter?

Neal Kuhlhorst M.Div. LMFT, CIRT is a pastoral counselor who is a member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists, Georgia Association of Marriage and Family Therapists, and is a certified Imago Relationship Therapist.

Who should attend?

BOF was designed for clinicians who desire to provide premarital education that integrates a faith-based approach that is congruent with behavioral science understandings of marital relationships. BOF is an excellent resource for clinicians who want to utilize Imago Relationship Theory with couples.

What will participants receive?

- A BOF Leader's Guide with Leader's Resource DVD
- Participant's Workbook
- Discounts on the purchase of additional BOF materials
- 6 Contact Hours of Continuing Education Credit
